SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By His Excellency

JAMES GLEN, Esq;

Captain-General, in and over His Majesty's said Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the General Assembly of this Province stands adjourned to Tuesday the Twenty-first Day of November next: And Whereas Matters of great Importance to the Welfare of this Province require their immediate Consideration: I have therefore, by the Advice of His Majesty's Honorable Council, thought fit to issue this my PROCLAMATION, to summon them to meet, at the usual Place in Charles-Town, on Tuesday the Twenty-first Day of this Month of September; and they are hereby required to meet at the said Time and Place accordingly.

Given under my Hand, and the Great Seal of His Majesty's said Province, this Eighteenth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty-two, and in the Twenty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

JAMES GLEN.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

COUNCIL-CHAMBER, September the 18*th*, 1752.

PRESENT,

His Excellency the GOVERNOR,

The Honble. { James Kinloch, Charles Pinckney, Hector Berrenger de Beaufain } Esqrs.

HIS Excellency the Governor, and His Majesty's Council, having received Information, that divers wicked and ill-disposed Persons, regardless of the Laws of God or of this Province, and divesting themselves of all Humanity to their Fellow-Subjects, take Advantage of the Calamity with which it hath pleased God to afflict the Inhabitants, by the late dreadful Hurricane, and go about picking up, purloining and plundering, the Goods, Wares and Merchandize, Houshold Furniture, Rigging, Timber, Boards, Shingles, and other Things, carried away by the Violence of the Wind and Waves and left in different Parts of Charles-Town, and elsewhere; and His Excellency, and the Council, greatly sympathizing with the unhappy Sufferers, and being desirous to protect all His Majesty's Subjects in their just Properties, are determined to discourage and prevent, to the utmost of their Power, such abominable and iniquitous Practice: And for that End, they Order all His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, Constables and other Officers and Ministers, that they shall receive Information, upon Oath, against any white Person concerned, or said to be concerned, in these wicked Practices, or when there is reasonable Ground of Suspicion thereof, that they bind over such Person, to answer the same at the next General Sessions, or commit him or her to Custody, to be dealt with according to Law: And that no Negro or other Slave, shall presume to carry off or take away, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, Houshold Furniture, Sails, Rigging, Timber, Boards, Shingles, or other Things, that have been wrecked or carried away by the Violence of the Wind and Waves, and left in Charles-Town or elsewhere; except in the Presence of, or by a Permit from the Person claiming or having Charge of such Goods: And it is hereby Ordered, that all Negroes or other Slaves offending herein, shall be sent to the Work-house, and there corrected for such Offence.

ALEXANDER GORDON, Clk. Con.

CHARLES-TOWN, Sept. 19.

The most violent and terrible Hurricane that ever was felt in this province, happened on Friday the 15th instant in the morning; and has reduced this Town to a very melancholy situation. As the Public doubtless will expect a particular Account from the press, so we have endeavoured to collect the best information we possibly could of this dismal calamity; for it is impossible, as yet, to tell all the damage and devastation we have sustained from the violence of the wind and waves.

On the 14th in the evening, it began to blow very hard, the wind being at N.E. and the sky looked wild and threatening: It continued blowing from the same point, with little variation, 'till about 4 o'clock in the morning of the 15th, at which time it became more violent, and rained, increasing very fast 'till about 9, when the flood came in like a bore, filling the harbour in a few minutes: Before 11 o'clock, all the vessels in the harbour were on shore, except the Hornet man of war, which rode it out by cutting away her main-mast; all the wharfs and bridges were ruined, and every house, store, &c. upon them, beaten down, and carried away (with all the goods, &c. therein), as were also many houses in the town; and abundance of roofs, chimneys, &c. almost all the tiled or slated houses, were uncovered; and great quantities of merchandize, &c. in the stores on the Bay-street, damaged, by their doors being burst open: The town was likewise overflowed, the tide or sea having rose upwards of Ten feet above the high-water mark at spring-tides, and nothing was now to be seen but ruins of houses, canows, wrecks of pettiaguas and boats, masts, yards, incredible quantities of all sorts of timber, barrels, staves, shingles, houshold and other goods, floating and driving, with great violence, thro' the streets, and round about the town. The inhabitants, finding themselves in the midst of a tempestuous sea, the wind still continuing, the tide (according to its common course) being expected to flow 'till after one o'clock, and many of the people being already up to their necks in water in their houses, began now to think of nothing but certain death: But, [Here we must record as signal an instance of the immediate interposition of the Divine Providence, as ever appeared.] they were soon delivered delivered from their apprehenſions; for, about 10 minutes after 11 o'clock, the wind veered to the E. S.E. S. and S.W. very quick, and then (tho' it continued its violence, and the ſea beat and daſhed every where with amazing impetuoſity) the waters fell above 5 feet in the ſpace of 10 minutes, without which unexpected and ſudden fall, every houſe and inhabitant in this town, muſt, in all probability, have periſhed: And before 3 o'clock the hurricane was entirely over.—Many people were drowned, and others much hurt by the fall of houſes.

At Sullivant's iſland, the peſt-houſe was carried away, and of 15 people that were there 9 are loſt, the reſt ſaved themſelves by adhering ſtrongly to ſome of rafters of the houſe when it fell, upon which they were driven ſome miles beyond the iſland, to Hobcaw: At Fort-Johnſon, the barracks were beat down, moſt of the guns diſmounted, and their carriages carried away: At Craven's and Granville's baſtions, and the batteries about this town, the cannon were likewiſe diſmounted: The Mermaid man of war, which had juſt gone up to Hobcaw, to heave down, was drove aſhore not far from the careening-place: The ſhip Lucy, of and for London, John Bulman maſter, which lay wind-bound in Rebellion road, dragg'd her anchors, drove by the fort and this town, and ran aſhore upon a marſh about 7 miles up Cooper-River: A new veſſel was drove off the ſtocks, and wreck'd at Mr. Wright's: The ſchooner Nancy, John Baddely, 3 other ſchooners, and the ſloop Nancy, John Holb maſter, all of this port, aſhore in Col. Harvey's paſture: Another new veſſel was wreck'd near Mr. Scott's: And one but lately begun, with the ſnow Induſtry, belonging to Mr. David Bevan, aſhore on the green near his houſe: Capt. Walker's pilot-boat, againſt the governor's houſe; and his ſloop, the Endeavour, bound for Jamaica, againſt the governor's Excellency's coach-houſe, ſtable, &c. which was ſhattered to pieces againſt Mr. Raper's houſe, whoſe balcony [illegible] againſt Dr. Caw's houſe: A ſmall ſchooner drove up cloſe againſt the old Cuſtom-houſe door, and one of Mr. Edwards's pilot-boats, to Mr. Tho. Smith's: Several boats, &c. againſt Mr. Price's: The ſloop Katharine, of New-York, Edward Manley, maſter, bound for Halifax, and the ſloop Induſtry, of and for Rhode-Iſland, aſhore upon the head of Mr. Bamford's wharf: The ſnow Charming Nancy, of and for Hull, on the head of Capt. Simon's, near the Council-Chamber: The brigt Peggy & Sally, of and for Briſtol, William James maſter, againſt the curtain-line, between Mr. Tho. Elliott's and Mr. Motte's: The ſloop Henry, Henry Cregier maſter, of and for New-York, againſt the Exchange on New-Market, where Mr. Edwards's other pilot-boat is wreck'd: The ſnow Dove, John Tuppen, bound for Cape-Fear, on the head of Mr. Eveleigh's wharf: A ſmall ſchooner againſt the curtain-line, near the Dove: The brigt. Two Friends, of and for Falmouth, Robert Johns maſter, beat down ſome houſes, and lies on the weſt ſide of Church-ſtreet, along-ſide of Mr. John Mathewes's: The ſhip Upton, of Liverpoole, lately arrived from Rotterdam, which lay up Aſhley-River, was drove a great way into the marſh near Wappoo: The ſloop Polly, George Gore, bound for Barbados; the ſchooner Elizabeth, Alexander McGillivray, of this port, for Jamaica; the ſloop Suſannah, Amos Minot, alſo of this port; the ſchooner Bault, with 8 or 10 other ſmall ſchooners, own'd here, and 3 or 4 pilot-boats, are drove, ſome into the woods, ſome into corn-fields, and others far into the marſhes, on and about James-Iſland, Wappoo, &c.——For about 30 miles round Charles-Town, there is hardly a plantation that has not loſt every out-houſe upon it.—All our roads are ſo fill'd with trees blown and broke down, that travelling is rendered extremely difficult; and hardly a fence was left ſtanding in the town or country.—Our loſs in fine timber-trees, is almoſt incredible; and we have ſuffered greatly alſo, in the loſs of cattle, ſheep, hogs, and all kinds of proviſion.

From Winyaw and Port-Royal, our accounts are much more favourable than were expected, no damage having been done to the ſhipping in thoſe harbours, and very little to the houſes, as the hurricane was hardly felt at either place.

Yeſterday arrived Capt. Gardner, from Providence, who ſays he felt the hurricane near St. Auguſtine, but received no damage; that he ſpoke with a large brigt. off this bar, in the morning, belonging to Whitehaven, and bound from Antigua for Cape-Fear; and that he ſaw part of a wreck, whoſe quarter was painted green.

This day arrived Capt. Comer, from Port-Royal, who has brought in 5 negroes and 2 ſeamen, which he took out of the ſhip Africa, of and from Bar[illegible] for this port, John Dorrington maſter, lying at anchor amongſt the breakers off North-Edisto: And Capt. Tedar, maſter of the ſnow Debby & Betſey, of and for this port, from Jamaica.

Capt. Dorrington met with a violent ſtorm, about 7 leagues to the eaſtward of this place, on wednesday laſt, that continued 'till the next afternoon, in which his ſhip loſt all her maſts, ſails and rigging, had one of her ſides beat in, and 5 ſeamen, one negro, with all her boats, &c. waſh'd over-board: On friday he came to an anchor off Edisto; and the ſhip Cunliffe, of Liverpoole, (with Germans from Rotterdam) coming to the ſame place in the evening, with his mate, quitted the Africa, and went on board of her.

Capt. Tedar has loſt his maſts, &c. and carried his veſſel into St. Helena inlet, near which place he met with the hurricane: He ſpoke with the Cunliffe, and a ſloop from Jamaica which ſhe had in tow, one [illegible] after, that had no maſt, ſail or rigging ſtanding, and ſhip with the ſloop Charles-Town, Capt. S[illegible], which veſſels are now coming in.

A ſloop is ſaid to be aſhore on Long-Iſland; and great quantities of wreck have been met with [illegible] the coaſt.

The Mermaid, and moſt of the other veſſels [illegible] here, may be got off again.
